Dear Parents and Carers

A-Level Spanish trip to the BFI – Southbank

The Languages department is delighted to offer a Spanish study day at the British Film Institute, Southbank on Wednesday 29 March. The day is divided in two sessions, the morning one focusing on three contemporary films that explore the dictatorship of Franco and Pinochet in Spain and Chile, respectively. The second session will be an afternoon screening of the award-winning, and Oscar nominated documentary The Silence of Others (2018) directed and produced by Almudena Carracedo and Robert Bahar, plus Q&A. The session will be led by Dr Sarah Wright and Dr Lidia Merás from the Royal Holloway, University of London.

We will be leaving school on Wednesday at 08.30 and we will be back approximately by 16.00. We will be covering the cost of transport and we would advise that your child brings a packed lunch however, students will be able to purchase food at the venue should they wish to. The cost of the trip is £8.00 and whilst the trip is not a requirement of the curriculum such journeys are invariably of great educational and social value to the students. If you are unable to pay for this trip, please do not hesitate to speak to or email me.

If your child is eligible for free school meals, a packed lunch will be available for collection.

If you would like your child to go back home by themselves from the venue directly or from Kidbrooke station, please tick the relevant box. We ask you to purchase the tickets via MCAS.

Yours sincerely
