TRANSITION READING LIST

SUBJECT: Health and Social Care

Transitional reading between Level 2 and Level 3 BTEC Health and Social Care should help bridge the knowledge gap and prepare you for the more in-depth study at Level 3. Here are some suggested readings that cover key topics and concepts:

Core Textbooks

1. "BTEC Nationals Health and Social Care Student Book 1" by Marilyn Billingham, Pamela Davenport, Beryl Stretch, and Hilary Talman
 - This book covers a range of units in the Level 3 specification and provides a solid foundation for your studies.
2. "BTEC Nationals Health and Social Care Student Book 2" by Marilyn Billingham, Pamela Davenport, Beryl Stretch, and Hilary Talman
 - It continues from Book 1 and covers additional units and more advanced topics, ensuring comprehensive coverage of the curriculum.

Supplementary Texts

1. "Heinemann BTEC Level 3 National Health and Social Care: Student Book 1" by Neil Moonie
 - Another excellent resource that complements the core textbooks with additional examples and practice questions.
2. "Health & Social Care: Level 3: BTEC National" by Elizabeth Rasheed, Alison Hetherington, and Linda Wyatt
 - This book offers insights into practical applications and helps with understanding the theoretical concepts through real-life case studies.

Online Resources

1. BBC Health News
 - Staying updated with current health news can help you understand the real-world application of your studies.

2. "British Journal of Social Work"
 - Offers peer-reviewed articles on social work practice and research.
 - British Journal of Social Work

Study Skills

1. "The Study Skills Handbook" by Stella Cottrell
 - This book is great for improving your study techniques, which will be useful as you transition to more advanced coursework.
2. "How to Study" by Phil Race
 - Provides practical tips and strategies for effective studying, note-taking, and exam preparation.

These resources should help you build a strong foundation for your Level 3 studies in Health and Social Care, providing both theoretical knowledge and practical insights.
